

2010 Toastmasters Conference

“Making the Climb”

November 5-6

Renaissance Hotel & Convention Center

EDUCATIONAL SPEAKERS

Kathy Wright

The Art of Conversation: The Art of Small Talk

Kathy is owner of Kathy Wright & Associated, a consulting and training firm. Her hundreds of speeches and training sessions revolve around the areas of communication, leadership management, board development and fundholding. She has been a Toastmaster for 25 years and has served in every officer role, as well as Area Governor for District 44 earning the designation of Area Governor of the Year.

Daniel Murtha

Know Yourself, Know Your Foe: A Study of Myers Briggs and Conflict Resolution

Daniel received his Masters of Science in management from St Gregory's University in January of 2008. His passion is for personality assessments that allow one to identify key attributes and to use the information to creatively solve conflict issues. He currently serves in Will Rogers Toastmasters Club, and as Assistant Governor for Area T6 and Assistant Division T Governor.

Gwen Latus

Interview with Ease: Using Toastmasters to Land Your Dream Job

Gwen Latus is currently President of Will Rogers Toastmaster Club - a two time President's Distinguished Club. Gwen held several jobs in sales, coaching, radio and television and currently serves as a Claim Representative for the Social Security Administration. She has given multiple presentations and training seminars.